

Google Assistant is a virtual assistant that can help you with various tasks. It can answer questions, provide information, and even perform actions on your behalf. For example, it can show you flight status, provide search results, and even play music. In the screenshots above, Google Assistant is shown responding to a text message with a photo of a pyramid and a flight status card.

