Facebook App Settings page showing a list of apps connected to the account.

The screenshot shows the 'Apps and Websites' section of the Facebook settings. It displays a grid of 15 apps, each with its icon, name, and a privacy lock icon indicating the audience for the app's profile information. The apps listed include 123RF, AddThis, Alexa Login, ASKfm, Askmonk, Asphalt Xtreme, Astrology And Me, Badoo, BigRock (Domain...), Biobla, facebook blueprint, BookMy Show (Ind...), Brusheezy!, Business Insider, and BuzzFeed. A 'Show All' link is located at the bottom right of the list.

Apps Account Settings page. The 'Apps Others Use' section is highlighted, showing a list of apps that can see your information when they are used. The 'Edit' button is visible at the bottom of the section.

The 'Edit' button is used to manage the apps that can see your information.

Apps Others Use

People on Facebook who can see your info can bring it with them when they use apps. This makes their experience better and more social. Use the settings below to control the categories of information that people can bring with them when they use apps, games and websites.

- | | |
|--|---|
| ☐ Bio | ☐ Posts on my timeline |
| ☐ Birthday | ☐ Hometown |
| ☐ Family and relationships | ☐ Current city |
| ☐ Interested in | ☐ Education and work |
| ☐ Religious and political views | ☐ Activities, interests, things I like |
| ☐ My website | ☐ My app activity |
| ☐ If I'm online | |

If you don't want apps and websites to access other categories of information (like your friend list, gender or info you've made public), you can turn off all Platform apps. But remember, you will not be able to use any games or apps yourself.
